PERFORMING ARTS SOCIETY
"Where Great Arts Support Great Education"

The band consists of classically trained and Julliard-graduated family members, all descendants of Annie Moses, their great-grandmother. Many members are multi-instrumentalists and present a high-energy show of everything from Classical and Bluegrass to Country and Rock. Annie Wolaver Dupree, the front singer, studied music at the Cincinnati Conservatory before heading to Julliard, so she has a soft spot in her heart for the Queen City. It will be a coming home of sorts. In 2012 the group filmed Christmas With the Annie Moses Band for PBS, which garnered 1200 hours of airtime setting a record for a debut artist. The latest album, Rhapsody in Bluegrass: Copeland to Cash is a panoramic exploration of American music receiving rave reviews.
