"An unforgettable Hispanic Cultural experience"

1st Show (9:50 a.m. - 10:55 a.m.)

LATIN AMERICAN EXTRAVAGANZA (Grades K-12)

A dazzling display of traditional and contemporary dance, costume, and music from Hispanic nations of the Caribbean, Central and South America.

Your students will be treated to the captivating sights, sounds and styles of: Argentina, Brazil, Columbia, Venezuela, Mexico, Cuba, Puerto Rico, the Dominican Republic, and many more!

This performance provides a unique opportunity for students to not only observe and understand the distinctions between dances, but also offers a comprehensive survey of Latin American cultures as seen through the performing arts.

In addition to the live music and dance extravaganza, the showcase features Argentinian Boleadores, sing alongs, and an interactive grand finale.

2nd Show (11:15 a.m. - 12:20 p.m.)

SPRING IN SPAIN (Grades 6-12)

Picture yourself being transported to Spain, sitting in a rustic Cantina viewing an authentic, intense and passionate performance of Tablao Flamenco, a colorful Zarzuela (Spanish operetta), La Jota, La Tuna troubadours (a group of traveling minstrels adorned in colorful attire), in addition to a variety of other folkloric dance and music from Spain.

Your students will also be treated to live classical guitarists performing a variety of traditional Spanish music between dances, and concludes with an exciting interactive finale with artists inviting members of the audience to be part of this great cultural event by joining them on stage to dance the "Macarena".

This show is appropriate for middle and high school students.
