

TAKE 6

QUINCY JONES AS THE "BADDEST VOCAL CATS ON THE PLANET!"

SEPT 13, 2015 - 7:30 PM

Take 6 has been recognized as the quintessential a cappella group in virtually every genre. They were inducted last year into the Gospel Music Association Hall of Fame, from whom they have received 10 Dove Awards in addition to their Soul Train Music Award, BRE (Black Radio Exclusive) Vocal Group of the Year and more.

Heralded by Quincy Jones as the "Baddest vocal cats on the planet!" Take 6 (Claude McKnight, Mark Kibble, Joel Kibble, Dave Thomas, Alvin Chea and Khristian Dentley) captivates the audience wherever they perform. They earned performances on Saturday Night Live, the Oscars, the Grammys, and have had the honor of performing for four sitting U.S. Presidents, and at the Democratic National Convention. One, their fifteenth album, is Take 6's most recent recording. It is the group's return to their spiritual heritage. Both groups look forward to recording their new projects – including this collaboration.
